

2020 United States Census

What you need to know

The US government counts everyone living in the country once every 10 years. This is called the Census.

The Census impacts government money for community resources and programs.

The form is short and your personal information is not shared with anyone.

You can respond on paper, online, on the phone, or in person.

It is important to complete the form so you and your family are counted.

Contact with any questions.

